

Useful Resources for New EAL learners:

Resource	Benefit to pupil	Resource	Benefit to pupil
Talking Tins	Can be operated independently . Can help pupil listen again to an instruction. Can help a distressed pupil listen to a message of comfort recorded by her parent.	2Start English Clicker 6	Useful for short term use and in short bursts. Pupil may need a little support be... .. Inter... .. scre pupil... .. ntro epen... ..
iPads/tablets Access BBC stories and other dual language materials Use creative and match/s... Trac... .. and tracking apps	Solitary activity under the control of the pupil. Can be useful for short bursts as respite activity, but in pairs alongside a... .. freely about... .. that the... .. will support... .. with... .. skills and... .. le... .. lary... .. Help to... .. odu... .. tation and... .. red... .. f... .. r... .. tracing or using a... .. plus... .. home language may be recorded in the opposite direction!	Dual language materials ... .. is a... .. ear and... .. and to stories through... .. r home language and may be able to share the resource with parent/carer. Where no dual language recording exists, if using a community contact or interpreter, try to record one key story that has a topical focus.	