

North West
Ethnic Minority Achievement Hub

Raising Attainment in Writing across the curriculum at Key Stage 2 and 3

Friday 9th March 2012
9.30 am – 3.30pm

Venue:
Development and Training Centre
Seedfield Site
Parkinson Street
Bury BL9 6NY

KEY NOTE SPEAKER:

Dr Urszula Clark
Reader in English, Aston University

Focus: Explicit Teaching of English Grammar in the Curriculum

Conference Aims:

- To secure high quality outcomes for all learners in writing with a particular focus on EAL pupils.
- To share best practice between Key Stage 2 and 3

Target audience:

Subject teachers, literacy coordinators, professionals with responsibility for EAL

£50.00 per delegate

North West Ethnic Minority Achievement Hub

Friday 9th March 2012

9.30 am – 4.00 pm

Venue:

CLAS

Development and Training Centre
Seedfield Site
Parkinson Street
Bury BL9 6NY

£50 per person

I confirm that I will be able to attend on:

Friday 9th March 2012

Name:

Role:

School name/address:

Authority:

email:

Invoice Address _____

Purchase Order Number _____ (bookings will not be accepted without a purchase number)

Special Requirements: _____
(i.e. wheelchair access, hearing loop, visual aid etc.)

Dietary Requirements: _____

Closing date: 24th February 2012

Please return by e-mail to carole.gamble@stockport.gov.uk to Carole Gamble, Ethnic Diversity Service, Bann Street, Stockport SK3 OEX, 0161 477 9000